Itinerary

Day 1 - Dar es Salaam to Ruaha

On arrival at the Julius Nyerere International Airport, you will be met by our representative and transferred to the nearby domestic airport for your scheduled flight to Ruaha National Park. On landing in Ruaha, you will be welcomed by your driver guide and enjoy a game drive en-route to Kigelia Ruaha Camp arriving in time for lunch. Kigelia Camp is located in the best game area of Ruaha National Park in a secluded grove high on the banks of the Ifuguru sand river. This intimate camp has just 6 large safari tents simply furnished with bucket showers and locally crafted pale wood furniture to avoid detracting from the beauty of the surrounding bush. After lunch is served in the shade of the Sausage Trees and you wait for the afternoon heat to subside to head out on your first game drive in Ruaha National park, enjoy an afternoon siesta, familiarise yourself with the camp's surroundings or relax in the cool lounge and socialise with the other guests. After tea and coffee hop into your safari vehicle in search of the fabulous game that inhabits the park including big cats, greater and lesser kudu and large herds of elephants. Return to camp just as the moon replaces the sun and enjoy a piping hot shower before sitting down to dinner.

Day 2 & 3 - Ruaha National Park

Over the next two days, you will be able to decide exactly how you would like to spend your days. You may prefer to enjoy a leisurely start each morning heading out into the park after a good breakfast; however we suggest that you rise early for a chance to watch the sun rise over the plains and enhance your game viewing experience. You may prefer to return to camp for breakfast or why not enjoying it in the heart of the bush surrounded by nothing but wilderness. Enjoy a leisurely game drive back to camp and spend the rest of the morning relaxing before lunch is served. Once the afternoon temperatures have cooled, you can head back out to explore the park in your safari vehicle or on foot accompanied by a guide for a completely different safari experience. Make your way back to camp before nightfall in time to enjoy a sundowner cocktail before dinner is served under a star-lit African sky. Alternatively, you may prefer to enjoy a sundowner in a beautiful spot within the park before slowly heading back to camp for another gourmet dinner followed by an evening sharing stories around a blazing camp fire.

Day 4 - Ruaha to Selous

Today you head towards Africa's largest game reserve. After a leisurely breakfast, you will be transferred back to the airstrip in time for your scheduled flight to Selous. Upon landing, you will be met by the friendly face of your driver guide and begin game sporting as you make your way to Sand Rivers Selous. This luxurious camp is composed of just 8 open-fronted stone and thatched cottages designed to offer guests maximum comfort with large cosy beds, plenty of space and incredible showers. Each room is built on a raised on a large wooden deck with stunning panoramic views over the river ensuring that the connection with the African bush is not lost. After freshening up, settling into your and delighting in a light but mouth watering lunch, you are free to explore your new 'home' for the next few days. As the day begins to cool, you will head out into the reserve by late afternoon for your first game drive. There is no shortage of game here as the Selous is home to the Big Five as well as many other species including hippo, wildebeest, sable antelope and the more rare wild dogs. As the afternoon turns into evening head back to the lodge where pre dinner drinks have been poured followed by a gourmet three-course dinner.
