Thorntree River Lodge fast facts

- 8 twin & 2 family units with private pools
- Luxurious riverside lodge: flexibility & relaxation
- Approx. 30 mins from Victoria Falls
- Gym & spa with wetlands views
- Solar-powered & environmentally-friendly
- Resort-feel with camp appeal

Set in the Mosi-Oa-Tunya National Park, on the banks of the Zambezi River, Thorntree River Lodge has been completely rebuilt with a freshly modern and environmentally conscious design. The look maintains an authentic African feel with contemporary canvas roofs, open-plan living areas, spacious decks and stunning river vistas. 8 twin rooms and 2 family units are raised above the ground, have indoor and outdoor bathrooms, lounges, terraces and private plunge pools. The family units are linked by a covered walkway. Fine cuisine is served in the dining area which flows into a well-stocked cellar. Communal seating areas extend out to the barbecue area and infinity pool, and a wooden floating deck moves with the water level, a seamless integration of water and land. Thorntree River Lodge is unfenced and has game wandering through it. It backs into a wetland and has good birding and game life. Activities include a Tour of the Falls (Zambian side), sunset boat cruise, seasonal fishing and village visit.
